

THE MET, LEEDS

BREATHTAKING INTERIOR DECOR IN A CITY CENTRE HOTEL

Located in the heart of the City, The Met is ideally located for exclusive shopping in the Victoria Quarter, experiencing the City's sophisticated restaurants and bars and visiting many of the city's cultural attractions.

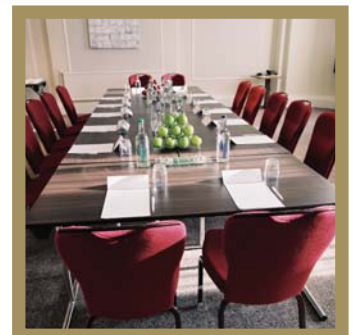

The ornate terracotta grade II listed building has recently undergone a major £6 million refurbishment and investment programme which has completely transformed the hotel to provide a breathtaking interior decor which is matched only by our uncompromising commitment to quality and service.

All 120 of the en-suite bedrooms have been furnished to an upper four-star standard to ensure your comfort is guaranteed. Whether you choose a standard or contemporary room, you can be assured that you will experience one of the most comfortable and memorable bedroom experiences in the country.

The Met offers unrivalled facilities for meetings, conferences, banqueting and special events with function rooms, equipped to the highest of standards accommodating between two and 250 people including the elegant Met Suite which can seat 250 delegates theatre style or 200 people for dinner. The brand new Tempus Bar is the ideal venue to meet friends or relax whilst having a pre-dinner drink.

BY ROAD

From the M1:

Take Junction 43 off of the M1 onto the M621, then exit at junction 3 signposted for Leeds City Centre and Holbeck. Following the signs for City Centre, go past the Hilton Hotel on Neville Street and under the railway bridge. At the second set of traffic lights turn left and get into the middle lane. Go straight through the next lights with Majestyk's Nightclub on your right, onto Wellington Street. Turn right at the small traffic island onto King Street, the hotel is on the right hand side.

From the M62 Manchester:

Take junction 27 off of the M62 onto the M621 then exit at Junction 3, signposted Leeds City Centre and Holbeck (follow above directions).

From the A62 York:
